PIONEER '61

FOREWORD

You have reached your goal. Two years have passed—a negligible duration of time compared to the life of mankind, yet it is of vast duration in what it has contributed to you—its potency, its importance upon your life.

Actually your college education started before you entered Sacramento City College. Your hopes and dreams of what you desired in college are all a part of this dynamic event: the grueling desire for success; the joyous excitement of entering a new phase in your life's experience—yet the subtle feeling of apprehension.

Many of you wanted to be popular—to hold a school office, to be a college athlete, or to belong to a sorority. Others of you wanted to attain academic success—to belong to Phi Theta Kappa, the national honorary fraternity, to get a scholarship, or to be graduated with "Great Distinction." And, still others of you wanted to get a better paying job to enhance your financial position.

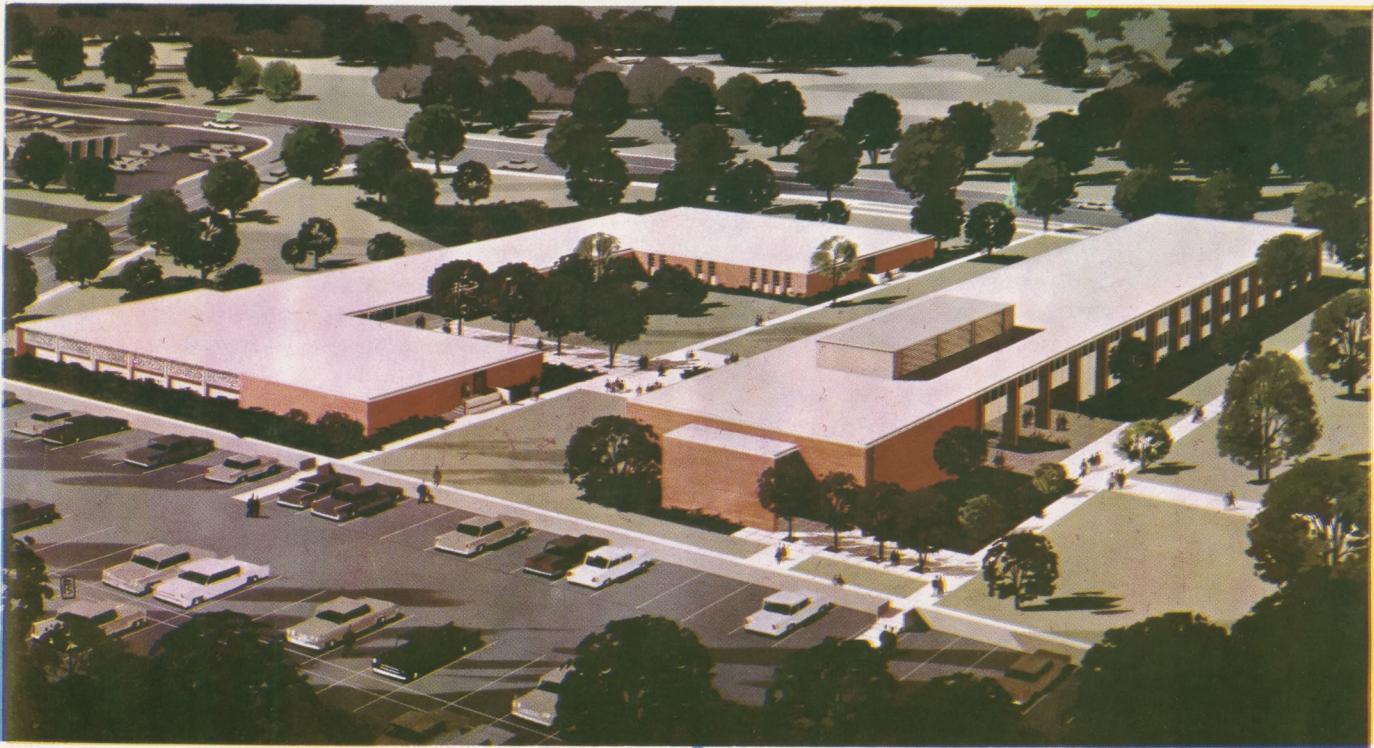

"Did I accomplish my goal here?" you are probably asking yourself. Many of you did; but what is more, you accomplished something much greater—something more significant than you ever dreamed could happen. To a degree, you were successful in all three phases of your college life—intellectual, social, and practical. The intellectuals couldn't help but be exposed to the thinking of the student leaders, athletes, and sorority girls. And the socially prominent students had to be somewhat academically minded to stay around to enjoy the extracurricular activities. We are deeply grateful for the faculty and administration's keen perception of this need in all students—in helping us, by their policies and teaching, to lead a more balanced college life.

This desire for success is both natural and good, not only for you but for your country as well. For it is this same wish for success that has made this country the great and dynamic nation that it is today.

For some of you these two years went by laboriously slow, with a few headaches along the way. But for most of you, the time whizzed by like a flash of lightning, so fast you hardly had a chance to see what you had accomplished. For this reason, the Pioneer staff wants to give you an opportunity to take another glance at yourself, your friends, the faculty, and administration just as they appeared throughout this last school year. This yearbook is "Sacramento City College in a Flash."

Automotive and Machine Shops

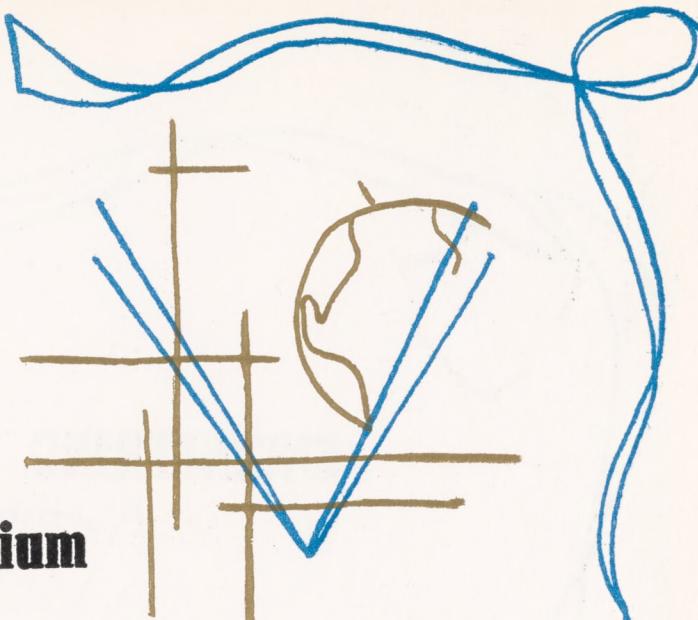

The auto and machine shops are full of activity all year long. It's probably safe to say that noise is quite prevalent (?) here during working hours.

PRESIDENT

Harold H. Stephenson

TO THE STUDENTS OF SACRAMENTO CITY COLLEGE:

Never has the quest for knowledge—new knowledge in its own right and in behalf of society—been attended with such a sense of urgency. Never have the challenges to the college, nor the opportunities for significant contribution, been so great.

Never has society expected so much from, nor in fact been so dependent upon, college-educated men and women to help resolve its problems and protect its survival. Never have so many students come as highly motivated as at present.

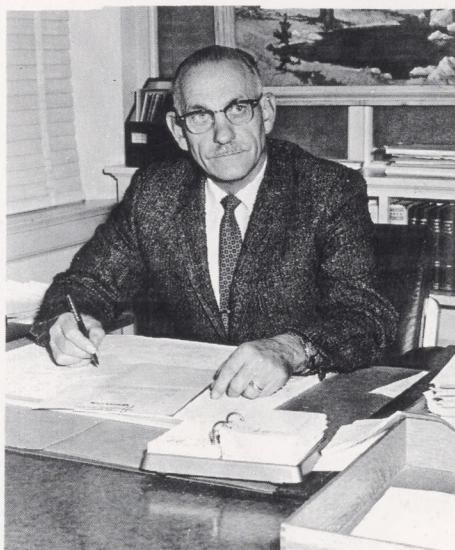

Sacramento City College is not only responsive to the spirit and demands of the times, but its faculty and administration take pride in exercising leadership in teaching students to think, to live together, and to work effectively.

After the first three quarters of the Sacramento-San Mateo game it seemed that the Panthers had it wrapped up. They had scored in the previous quarters on touchdowns by Ladd Holton, Finniss Hurdle, and Gary Moon, who raced 55 yards for his scoring effort. The score at the beginning of the fourth quarter was Sacramento 22, San Mateo 14. This score stood until the last six minutes of the exciting fourth quarter, when San Mateo rallied with three touchdown plays which ended the game with the final score of 38 to 22.

SCC, 13-Oakland, 14

The Oakland City College Thunderbirds emerged as victors in the sixth game of the season. The 14 to 13 win occurred because of the failure of the Panthers to make a needed conversion. At the end of the second quarter Ken Graham put Sacramento ahead by a score of 7 to 6. In the third quarter Oakland made the score 14 to 7. Ken Graham in the fourth quarter skirted right end for three yards and a Panther score. With three minutes left in the game the Panthers decided to go for the win but failed.

Homecoming SCC, 20-Contra Costa, 8

Early scores led the way to a homecoming victory over the Contra Costa Comets. In the first period Ed Lawrence intercepted a Comet pass on the Sacramento 10 yard line and following a series of plays Graham stepped away from his would-be tacklers and went over for the score. On a fourth-and-12 situation, the Comets punted and Bob Michael took the ball and galloped over the goal line for a touchdown. Contra Costa hit paydirt in the second quarter when Henry Pippen sailed into the end zone. The Panthers added the final score of the evening when Humackich plunged over for the conversion to win the game.

Coach Charlie Smith

Charlie Smith, the former dean of boys and athletic director of Live Oak High School, has just this year taken over the job of assistant baseball coach and golf instructor of that department.

The coach, who received his AB at San Jose State College, boasted three championship basketball teams in 15 years while at Live Oak. His only disappointment was having six second place teams during that same period of time.

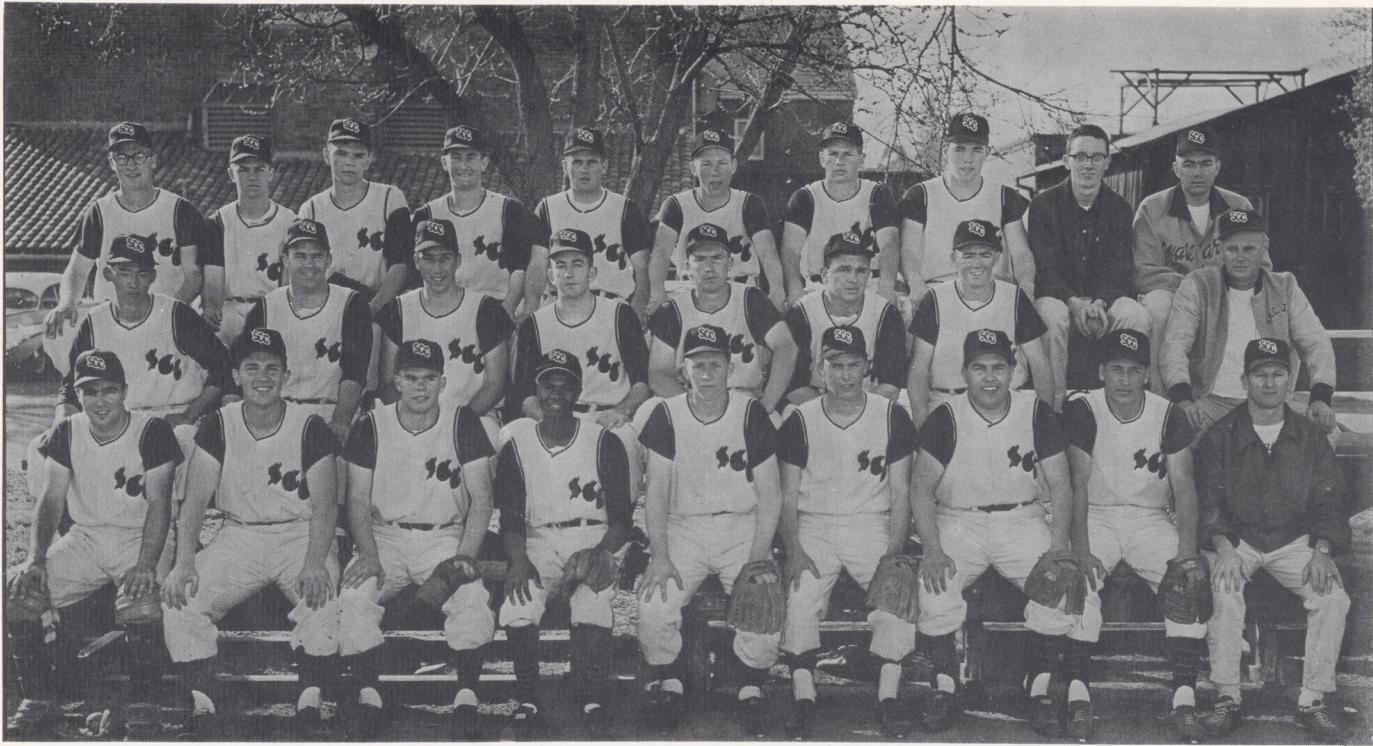

Coach Smith had a long record of personal achievements while at San Jose. From 1937 to 1939 he played on the undefeated Spartan football team, which in 1939 missed going to the Rose Bowl by only one vote. This was the highest scoring team in the nation at that time.

Also during his college days Mr Smith was an outstanding matman. From 1937 to 1939 he held three lightweight titles for the San Jose team.

IN RECOGNITION

William J. Burkhard

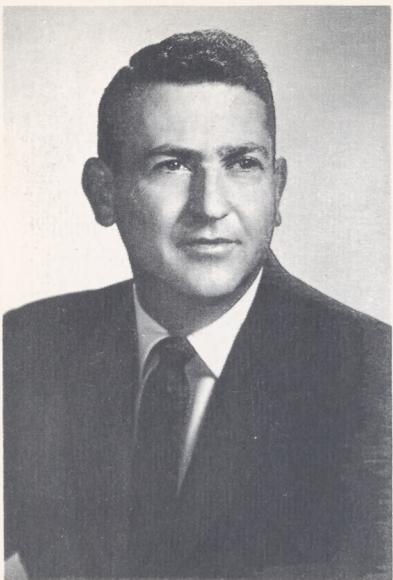

No one deserves deeper consideration and recognition than Mr. William J. Burkhard, who served for 13 years as Superintendent of Sacramento City Schools. Mr. Burkhard worked hard at a job that demands much of an individual—physically, emotionally, and intellectually. On February 18 of this year, Mr. Burkhard retired because of health reasons. We of Sacramento City College—each and every one of us—humbly and sincerely dedicate our everlasting admiration to him.

Mr. Burkhard is a remarkable man who has dedicated his life to teaching and education. He has advanced his way up through the ranks, from the time he started his teaching career in Alemeda City Schools to the time when he served as Superintendent of Sacramento City Schools to today when his contributions reach us all—students and teachers alike.

In 1957, William Burkhard received an Honorary Doctor's Degree from College of Pacific—the only man at the time to share this honor with Governor Goodwin Knight. Mr. Burkhard served on numerous civic groups: the Chamber of Commerce, Phi Delta Kappa, Masons, and others. He was also a member of various state-wide professional education organizations whose influence on Education in California has been marked.

This is a man who, with all his intelligence and status, is kind and sympathetic to other people's needs; he is an expert on understanding human nature. Not only is he popular in Sacramento, but he commands respect from all his colleagues in the educational field and elsewhere, throughout California.

The most adequate words become inadequate in trying to express gratefulness to such a man who was so dedicated and is so well liked as William J. Burkhard. Needless to say, we at Sacramento City College are proud to be a part of the school system which Mr. Burkhard so expertly and faithfully guided.

IN MEMORIAM

Because I could not stop for Death,
He kindly stopped for me;
The carriage held but just ourselves
And Immortality.

We slowly drove, he knew no haste,
And I had put away
My labor, and my leisure too,
For his civility.

We passed the school where children played
At wrestling in a ring;
We passed the fields of gazing grain,
We passed the setting sun.

We paused before a house that seemed
A swelling of the ground;
The roof was scarcely visible,
The cornice but a mound.

Since then 'tis centuries; but each
Feels shorter than the day
I first surmised the horses' heads
Were toward eternity.
